LENTEN CANTATAS

"For us men"

by I. BURNELL

For Mezzo-Soprano, Tenor and Bass Soli, Chorus and Organ

3s. 6d.

Tonic Sol-fa 2s. 6d.

This work is of about the same standard of difficulty as Stainer's "Crucifixion" and is simple and direct in expression. There is only one Mezzo-Soprano solo, and this may be sung by a group of boys. The other solo voices are the Narrator (tenor) and Jesus (bass).

"Lenten Cantata"

by HANDEL

For Treble, Tenor and Bass Soli, and Chorus

2s. 6d.

The Passion Music from "Messiah" and "The Passion of Christ." A selection of both works, planned with the object of providing a short complete cantata on the subject of the Passion.

"Sacrifice Triumphant"

by BASIL HARWOOD

Soprano, Tenor and Bass Soli, Chorus and Organ

3s. 6d.

A cantata for Lent or Holy Week, for solo voices, chorus and reader. Effective use is made of plainsong melodies and hymns from various sources.
